We, the people belonging to the Thathiyar caste (community) wish to see our traditional work of making utensils with brass, copper and bronze remain alive. This art and craft should be seen in the representative list of intangible cultural heritage. We agree that our art should be included in the said list. We wish to take it forward to our next generation. We shall be immensely happy if the UNESCO decides to include our art in its representative list of ICH. We shall be deeply thankful to the UNESCO.
