Participation of the Kgosing Ward and the Royal Family in the Nomination Process

The Kgosing Ward is the most key ward of the Bakgatla ba Kgafela community as it houses the Royal Family and especially Queen Mma Matshego. The Kgosing Ward is the custodian of The Use of Moropa wa Bojale ba Bakgatla ba Kgafela and its Associated Practices. The Royal Family (female members) also forms the core of the Council of Elderly Women, who in conjunction with the Queen oversees the practice of Bojale (female initiation). The Council of Elderly Women also includes members from four other major wards of the community being Mabodisa, Morema, Tshukudu and Manamakgothe. The Royal Family and indeed the Council of Elderly Women was informed about the nomination of the element and thereafter, organised the participation of all relevant stakeholders. This was possible after the realisation of the importance of safeguarding the element in the lives of our children particularly in these challenging contemporary times.

I. Mma Seingwaeng, the immediate past custodian of the The Use of Moropa wa Bojale ba Bakgatla ba Kgafela and its Associated Practices have been fully engaged in the current nomination process of the element to the UNESCO List of ICH in Need of Urgent Safeguarding. My specific role in the nomination process was representing the reigning custodian of the element and the Queen of Bakgatla ba Kgafela, Mohumagadi Mma Matshego. My role also included organising and leading the Council of Elderly Women in preparing the nomination of the element. I confirm that the nomination has captured the element in its true form and taboos associated with the element have been adhered to.

I have been informed about the nomination of The Use of Moropa wa Bojale ba Bakgatla ba Kgafela and its Associated Practices to the UNESCO List of ICH in Need of Urgent Safeguarding. Thereafter I freely gave my consent and fully participated in the nomination process. The safeguarding plan we have proposed will help in ensuring transfer of drumming skills to young Bakgatla ba Kgafela women. It will also prompt research on production skills of the initiation drum with the help of the practitioners of the element. I confirm that the nomination followed traditional protocols, especially taboos, associated with the element and that it represents the true form of the element.
