To Whom It May Concern

We, on behalf of the teachers and students of the Dhaka University's Faculty of Fine Art, hereby state that the teachers and students of this Faculty are the bearers and practitioners of Mangal Shobhajatra on Pahela Baishakh and will continue to be so in the years to come successively. Mangal Shobhajatra on Pahela Baishakh, now the grandest event on the first day of the Bangla New Year, is a creative innovation of the teachers and students of this Faculty to uphold the people's democratic rights and to energize the people to fight against the sinister forces which try to snatch away their freedom, and it has become a significant, expressive and colourful festive event by itself and has appealed to the people profoundly irrespective of caste, creed, religion, class, gender and age for a common cause in the midst of ecstasy for the celebration of the Bangla New Year annually on 14 April of the Common Era.

We, on behalf of the teachers and students of the Dhaka University's Faculty of Fine Art, hereby give our free and explicit consent on this day of 15 March 2014 to the nomination of Mangal Shobhajatra on Pahela Baishakh for its inscription on the Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity. We further state that our consent is based on our understanding that the proposed inscription will not only bring global recognition to the element but will also reinforce this dynamic element of our intangible cultural heritage. We actively participated in the nomination process as well as in collaborating with the experts and researchers who studied and documented all aspects of the element. It was a pleasure to work with them.

To Whom It May Concern

On behalf of the Dhaka University’s Faculty of Fine Art I hereby give our free and explicit consent on this day of 15 March 2014 to the nomination of Mangal Shobhajatra on Pahela Baishakh for its inscription on the Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity. I further state that our consent is based on our understanding that the proposed inscription will not only bring global recognition to the element but will also reinforce this dynamic element of our intangible cultural heritage. The teachers and students of this Faculty actively participated in the nomination process as well as in collaborating with the experts and researchers who studied and documented all aspects of the element. It was a pleasure for me to support the nomination process wholeheartedly and to provide all kinds of assistance to the experts and researchers to enable them to work with the teachers and students of this Faculty. I wish the success of the element for inscription on the Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.
