Revitalizing dying Arts:

Indigenous Cultural Society is known for its community participation and effective team work system. It has identified cultural village and community for its research, documentation, promotional work and for good safeguarding practices. We have selected Lazami village, one of the highest populous and oldest village of Sümi Naga tribes of Nagaland state of India, as cultural village. Lazami village symbolises archives and museum of tribal culture of Nagaland state. Their traditional life setting; language, diet, traditional agricultural cultivation, traditional attires, folklores, folksongs, folk dance, archetic, customs, economy, art, literature, beliefs, concept, attitude, manner folk music, dress, and sports etc are revitalized, documented promoted and protected through mass participation.

The Indigenous Cultural Society (ICS) always stands on the motto; ‘Deeply human’. To sensitize the importance of prevailing social issues that confronts our tribal people and society, ICS also to address the prevailing community issues organized seminars on team building, Woman’s Rights, Indigenous People’s Rights, Customary laws in collaboration with Civil Societies i.e. Woman Union/Associations, Tribal Councils, network with Students Union, Traditional healers and Church etc.

Indigenous Cultural Society (ICS) in collaboration with different Forum, Association, Union, NGOs and Civil Societies on regular basis organise different traditional, contextuel and festivity programmes for women, Youth, Children, differently able, Senior Citizen, Orphan, dropouts and farmers. Not to exceed 100 words

No

D.3 In what way(s) has your organization provided advisory services to the Committee (OD 96) or in what way(s) do you foresee that it might provide such services in the future?

Not to exceed 500 words

We anticipate the responsibility and challenges of the assignment in the near future. Indigenous Cultural Society (ICS) as a Cultural NGO has been actively involving in the assignment of revitalization, research and promotional activities programme. Our NGO act as an advisory and consultant body not only to the Government agencies but also to tribal Association, Students Union, Mother’s Association, Church and other NGOs and Self Help Group in the above mentioned domains and cultural components:

i. Oral traditions and expressions

ii. Performing arts

iii. Social practices, rituals and festive events

iv. Knowledge and practices concerning nature and the universe

v. Traditional craftsmanship

vi. Other Domains

In revitalization programme we streamline endangering and dying arts and practices i.e. oral literature & language etc. In research we focus on documentation publication and patient. In promotional programme we on priority bases promote dying arts i.e.: Traditional healer profession, folkmedicine, folkmusic, language, craftsmanship etc. The most endangering cultural community is a Tribal irrespective of its geographical location for its inter-cultural influences. Their language and community living is severally affected by urbanization. Thus, we could foresee the need for revitalization mechanism of lost and endangering traditional and cultural values. That would safeguard and strengthen community culture for long term.

E. Capacities of your organization to evaluate nominations, proposals and requests (as described in OD 27 and OD 96):

E.1. Nominations, proposals and requests are available for evaluation only in English or French. Do members of your organization or your staff have a very good command of English or French? If so, please indicate which language(s) and the number of those members or staff.

Not to exceed 250 words

Yes, we have good track record of research work, publication, supervisory work, monitoring activities and project managements. English is our working language. We have competent staff i.e.: Five (5) staff. One in Cultural Studies, two in folklore studies, one in theatre and one in folkdance and folk music. Who would handle the assignment if required and assigned.
E.2. Does your organization have experience in working across several ICH domains? Please describe your experiences.

Not to exceed 250 words

Yes, challenging experience. Our fourfold methodology of documentation, research, coding and promotion did tremendous work to serve our purpose. All six domains of ICH gave us equal strength and outcome. It enabled us to revitalize many lost elements of ICH i.e.; oral literature, language, customary, folksongs, folkmusics, folkdance steps, indigenous games, Agriculture, Festivals, Rituals, Mithun sacrifice, Indigenous Knowledge, Environment awareness, Lycanthropy, Traditional craftsmanship; Crafts, Household items, Dress Mezhala (wrap around) and shawls. Other domains, Cultural exchange program, treaty, Empowerment and livelihood program, and Socio cultural Campaign.

Nagaland is a land of colourful traditional art and culture. Yet after the advent of modernisation and westernisation it has been observed that people especially youth and children of present days are not much aware of the importance of traditional art & culture. Keeping this in view our NGO has established training centre to initiate revitalisation programme that would foster communal harmony and integration. Through this program several artists of different age category and gender are trained and groomed. They are made active to perform folk art, folk music, folk dance etc and other contemporary activities. Through this regular program the youth and children are also encouraged to learn their traditional arts and perform it in all the functions and festivals. So far 1486 artist in the field of folkdance, folksong, and folk music, oral literature have been trained. Research on Naga folkdance has been conducted successfully, on regular basis.

Our Indigenous Cultural Society (ICS) through sustainability development programme provides self empowerment opportunity.

E.3. Describe the experience of your organization in evaluating and analysing documents such as proposals or applications.

Not to exceed 250 words

Indigenous Cultural Society (ICS) as an advisory body to State Art and Culture Department and North East Zone Cultural Centre (NEZCC), Ministry of Culture Government of India, evaluates and analyses many project write-up and reports at every interval time. We do prepare different types of short-term medium-term and long-term project and assist implementing agencies for affective and lasting result. So far we have assisted project on ie, folkdance, folksongs, events, sustainability development, Research, Publication, Documentary, Training programme, workshop, festivity, Seminar etc, of many agencies: projects application of State Art and Culture department, women, Student Union etc.

E.4. Does your organization have experience in drafting synthetic texts in English or French? Please describe your experience and indicate in which language(s) and the number of those members or staff.

Not to exceed 250 words

So far our NGO has done internal assignements of our own. We have Completed empirical research on Sumi Naga folkdance and published ten years course syllabus for Centre for Cultural Resources and Training (CCRT) Minister of Culture. Completed and published Genealogical research book of Chishi Clan. ICS conducted habitant Documentary at Mishilimi Village on 1-2 September 2019. Revitilizing of Sumi traditional Morung at Lazami Sumi ancestral village. So far published 10 research book and more than 200 research articles. For documentation of oral tradition and promotion of cultural research work the NGO is also involved in publication work.
Along with the documentation work the NGO is also engaged in literary promotional work. Thus, publish translation work as well, currently revising Sümi Naga folksongs book and video CD and English version of Naga Folklores. A part from cultural research with a view to strengthen tribal language and promote it, vernacular literature is given a top most priority.

E.5. Does your organization have experience in working at the international level or the capacity to apply local experience to an international context? Please describe such experience.

As UNESCO Accreditation NGO & ICCN associate members, we aim and work on inclusive Culture. As such our NGO in different capacity have good experience of networking relationship and exposure. One such international context application is to encourage the Person with Differently able (PwDs). To incorporate inclusive culture in assence and practice we train and promote inclusive folk art to PwDs and participated at different international, National, State, Regional, and local events. So far Indigenous Cultural Society (ICS) PwD artists have represented Nagaland state by participating at two different Devya kala Shakti National events, at Rashtrapati Bhawan, on Presidents invitation at New Delhi on 04-18 April 2019 And another at Parliament House with Prime Minister of India New Delhi on 23-24 July 2019. The Programme was Organised and sponsored by Minister of Social Justice and Empowerment.

We do have lots of research findings of the protetial of indigenous game and sports that would gain international repute. Our Naga indigenous game that can be contextualise with the existing international game and sports are a unique ‘Apükhü kiti ‘ (kick fight) that resembles tikondo, indigenous wrestling that resembles judo and unique spare kick that would strengthen and promote tribal folkart at the international level.

F. Cooperation with UNESCO

Indigenous Cultural Society association with UNESCO has been immensely benefited our NGO in particular and community that we represents as a whole. We are so grateful to the esteemed authority of UNESCO for extending keen concern even to the most neglected tribal community of the world. Recognising our NGO’s objectives and activities by UNESCO itself is an achievement for our tribal NGO.

All our activities are enshrined with the UNESCO ICH elements. We are directly involved with UNESCO as an accredited body. We owe a great debt to UNESCO for realising the need of networking, association and upliftment of cultural community of the world. We acknowledge the support of UNESCO especially towards a community such as ours, in developing countries, who are politically deprived, economically marginalized and socially discriminated.

UNESCO has paved the way for us to see the world cultural community, educate us to see and learn endangering elements and the need to safeguard them, without which act of kindness it would have been a mere distant dream for many of us.

Through the assistance provided by UNESCO, our NGO could participate at four ICH programme. Our NGO serves the community under UNESCO umbrella. All the 5 cultural domains of UNESCO are seriously carried on as regular activities. Both tangible and intangible culture domains are valued and implemented at local, state, regional, national and international level. We do indentify dying arts and as priority basis service and promote them all.
